

MANCHESTER MATTERS.

THE DEMOCRATS ACTIVELY PREPARING FOR THE ELECTION.

Religious Exercises To-Day.—The Matter of a Double Track on Hull Street Being Discussed.—Personals and Briefs.

MANCHESTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES, NO. 1121 HULL STREET, BEAUTE BLOCK, I.

The Democratic campaign managers are getting down to work preparing for the approaching election and the expectation is that a good vote will be polled on November 1st. Mr. Ernest H. Wells, chairman of the City Democratic Committee, has called a meeting of the committee for next Tuesday night, at which time campaign work will be discussed, it is especially desired that all the members shall be in their places.

The following order of religious exercises will be observed at the Manchester churches to-day:

There will be services at Cowardin Avenue Christian church at 8 o'clock, and the church and Sunday-school officers and teachers will go up the study to fast and pray and consecrate themselves anew to God. At 11 A. M. there will be a "self-examination" rally, addresses by Revs. L. M. Omer and H. C. Garrison, of Richmond. At 11 A. M. the pastor will preach a sermon on "Self Examination." The pastor desires to make the day an occasion of great heart searching, humiliation, and blessing.

At Bainbridge-Street Baptist church there will be preaching at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. by the pastor. In the morning the pastor will discuss "The Tithing System." After the morning sermon the Lord's Supper will be administered. A large attendance of the members of the church is hoped for.

Rev. Mr. Dennis of Birmingham, will occupy the pulpit of Meade-Memorial church, both morning and night. Mr. Dennis is a very forcible preacher, and no doubt there will be large congregations to hear him.

Rev. W. W. Lear will preach at Central church at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. The Wednesday night services hereafter will be held at 7:30 o'clock.

Owing to the sickness of Rev. Charles N. Van Houton there will not be any services at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. W. R. Haight will occupy his pulpit at First Methodist.

There will be a class meeting at West-End church at 2:30 o'clock P. M. The public is invited.

Services at West-End church: Sunday-school at 9:30 A. M. Services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Huff. Junior Epworth League at 3 o'clock; Epworth League at 6:45.

It was erroneously stated yesterday morning that there was a small attendance at the meeting of the City Council Friday night. A good many members came in after the first roll-call, the only one who did not arrive being Mr. Nelson, who is out of the city.

The action of the Council Friday night in regard to repaving Hull street was considerably discussed yesterday, as well as the question of the electric railway company's laying double tracks on that street.

It is said that now while Hull street is torn up and preparations are being made for repaving it is the best time for the railway company to lay a double track. If a new pavement is laid on Hull street about the double track in all probability it will have to be torn up in a short while in order to lay the much needed double track, and in so doing incur a greater expense. If the City Council will look into this matter before the new pavement is laid they will receive the thanks of many citizens. If the double track is laid, it will not only provide against the new pavement being torn up but secure a better car service.

Adjutant Hunter, of Baltimore, and Capt. Winterbottom, of Petersburg, conducted the services of the Salvation Army at Odd-Fellows' Hall last night. After the exercises were concluded, an organ concert was enjoyed by those present.

There will be a mass-meeting of the People's party of Chesterfield at the Courthouse next Monday. The object of this meeting is to ratify the nomination made by the non-partisan "honest-election" conference that was held on Monday, September 30th. The following nominations were made at this conference: For the Senate, W. M. Flanagan, of Powhatan; for the House of Delegates, Messrs. Carter Harrison, of Powhatan, and Z. T. Morrison, of Chesterfield.

The People's Fair Drill, to be given in Leader Hall Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday nights of next week, promises to be a very interesting and entertaining affair. Thirty-six boys and girls, dressed in costume, will take part in the drill, and represent the different nations.

The Blues' Quintette will also be on hand, with an excellent musical programme.

Miss Alice Bass, of Swansboro, has returned from Powhatan county to reopen school.

Mr. W. B. Lipscomb, lost a valuable partner in the Exposition grounds Friday.

Miss Mayme Jones, of Emporia, Va., is visiting Mr. W. S. Taylor, on West Third street.

The condition of Master Emmett Tupper was slightly improved last night.

Mr. T. E. Russell is able to be out after a severe spell of sickness.

Messrs. C. M. and A. E. Loughlin, of Norfolk are on a visit to their relative, Mrs. William Smith, Seventh street. They were also visitors to the Exposition.

Mr. Algenon Daingerfield, of Culpeper, and Mr. C. B. Harris, of Charlottesville, who have been visiting in the city, have returned to their respective homes.

Justice John's Court.

The following cases were disposed of in the Police Court by Justice Crutchfield yesterday:

Martha Ann Taylor (colored) was fined $250 and costs for being disorderly in the street. She was also sent to jail for two days in default of $300 surety.

H. W. Lewis (colored) was fined $50 and costs for assaulting and beating M. H. White in Louisa county.

The same punishment was inflicted on White for assaulting and beating Austin.

Daniel Shelling was sent to jail for thirty days for being drunk and an attachment was issued against J. E. Jenkins, who was charged with the same offence and failed to appear in court.

George Lewis was charged with assaulting and striking Ada Smith, on October 8th. He was sent on to the grand jury.

John Cannady, charged with petit larceny, was sent to jail for thirty days.

The case of Joe Scott (colored), charged with shooting Pinkey Lewis, was continued until October 16th, and the same disposition was made in the case of Samuel Lewis (colored), who was charged with shooting Henry Harris and Joe Scott.

Base-Ball News.

There will be a meeting at the Lexington tomorrow night of the owners of franchises of base-ball clubs in Virginia to reorganize the league for next season.

Richmond, Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Lynchburg will certainly be in the league next year. It appears that there is some uncertainty about Petersburg and Roanoke, but it is believed both will come in again. Danville is anxious to join the league and Hampton is said to desire to secure a franchise.

Joe Wells was in the city yesterday. He will remain here several days before going South.

Henrico News.

The October term of the County Court of Henrico opens on October 1st.

There was a meeting of the School Board of Brookland district yesterday, at which the teachers were paid for the month.

Miss Sue Tompkins was elected to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Mary Wilson, who has accepted a position in Idaho.
